King’s Library, situated in Webb's Court, has been in continuous existence since the founding of the College in 1441. The first catalogue dates from 1452; the present Library building was built by William Wilkins in 1824-8. With approximately 130,000 books, the Library’s chief purpose is to provide the books and electronic resources needed by the students of the College. In addition, it holds significant collections of rare books and archives.

The College Library is part of the much wider library system of the University, including the University Library (a legal deposit library), and the specialised faculty and departmental Libraries; between them they cover all major subjects in depth and are particularly good for periodicals. Their catalogues are accessible online and from the PCs in King’s Library, which is run not merely as a repository of printed material, but also as a gateway to external electronic resources.

Cambridge also has a good Public Library in Lion Yard. Facilities there include a music library, an excellent reference section and the Local Studies library.
The Library uses the Bliss classification scheme, which assigns a lettered code (known as a 'classmark') to books on each subject. The Main Library book stock carrying these classmarks is arranged in alphabetical sequence starting at the entrance, going round the Library in a clockwise loop and finishing at the right-hand side of the Library.

Special Locations
Oversized books are marked with green dots on their spines and located on the lowest shelves. Books shelved behind the normal sequence, i.e. in the back row, are marked with blue dots, or labelled ‘Behind’. There is a special area for books of local interest in our Local Collection located on the second floor corridor. Past examination papers are kept in the Balfour (Computer) Room. All music books and printed music are located on the second floor in the Rowe Music Library. Books with “Climate” at the beginning of their classmark are part of our Global Warming Collection, which is located in the main library on the right-hand side just beyond the Enquiry Desk. Books with “Welfare” at the beginning of their classmark are part of our Welfare Collection, which is located in the computer area. Most travel books are kept in the Graduate Suite, and can be fetched if required. Please note that rare books and music will not be found amongst the main sequence, and are not available for borrowing in the normal way. For information about the various collections of rare books, music and archives apply to the Librarian and the Archivist respectively.

VISITORS

All visitors who wish to access the Library or Archives Centre should make an appointment in advance of their visit. Visitors will need to press the buzzer at the Library entrance for access. Please note that the Archives reading room is closed for 4 weeks over Christmas and both Library and Archives are closed to visitors for 6 weeks during the University’s examination period in May/June each year.

LIBRARY RULES

The Library is a place for quiet study, and we ask that you respect fellow library users by keeping noise to a minimum, not making or receiving telephone calls and not eating or drinking (only bottled water is allowed in the Library). Smoking, including e-cigarettes, is of course forbidden in the Library. Students found to be in breach of these rules will be referred to the Lay Dean. In order to assist with maintaining the safety and security of College members and visitors, the Library is covered by the college-wide CCTV system.

LIBRARY CATALOGUES

The Library has three catalogues: the online catalogue, the original hand-written catalogue and the printed Rowe Library Catalogue. In addition, the Library’s holdings in the online catalogue are also to be found in iDiscover (www.idiscover.lib.cam.ac.uk/). For special collections catalogues, see last few pages of this guide.

1. Online Catalogue

The URL of the Library’s online catalogue is: http://library.kings.cam.ac.uk/

In the catalogue bay in the Main Library and in the Rowe reading room you will find PCs where you can search the holdings of the Library on the online catalogue. This catalogue includes all material on open access within the Library and can be accessed by any online computer without restriction. The online catalogue employs a full-text searching mechanism, which means that you can look for a book by author, title, subject, keyword, year, classmark, or series. You can also browse the catalogue under many headings.

My Account
To log into your library account on the online catalogue, type your User ID (the five-character barcode from the back of your university card) into the box in the top right-hand corner and click 'Login to e-Library'. The default PIN setting is blank, so you should not enter anything in the PIN field. From the 'My Account' page accessible via the link on the purple toolbar you can check which books you have on loan, renew books remotely, and create a PIN to make your account more secure should you wish.

Recalling books
If a book in the catalogue is shown to be on loan and you wish to borrow it, it is possible to recall the book. Click 'Place Hold' from the left-hand menu, enter your User ID and PIN (if you have one), and click 'Place Hold' once more. You will be notified by email when the book is available.
Purchase requests
You can also use the online catalogue to request the library buys a book for your studies. Click the ‘Recommend to Purchase’ link on the purple toolbar, then fill in the form that appears. You will be notified by email when the book is available.

2. Original hand-written Catalogue

This consists of the hand-written volumes shelved in the catalogue bay (adjacent to the Enquiry Desk). The entries are arranged alphabetically by author or editor, or by the title for anonymous works. Each entry gives the classmark of the book, or the shelf mark for the older (pre 1830) stock. A red "S", or similar symbol, indicates that a book has been placed in store. Please ask one of the librarians at the Enquiry Desk if you wish to access books in store, but please give reasonable notice, as immediate fetching is seldom possible. Most store books must be read in the Library when the librarians are present.
The online catalogue should be consulted in the first instance for all material, but if you are searching for older or rare material and it doesn’t come up there, then the hand-written catalogue should be your next port of call.

3. Rowe Library Catalogue

All open access music books, music journals and some opera scores have been entered on the online catalogue; and the collected works of major composers are currently being catalogued. The online borrowable stock can be borrowed via the loans terminal in the Main Library. The majority of Rowe Library scores have not yet been catalogued online; but they can be accessed in a series of typed catalogue books in the Rowe Library reading room on the second floor. There is a related classified index.
This record describes 3 copies of a piece of unbound music. The first one is the 51st item in Box LXIII (located in the middle bay of the Rowe), while the second and third copies are reserved items kept in store. Apply to the librarians if you wish to see a reserved item.

BORROWING LIBRARY BOOKS

Most books in the Main Library and in the Rowe Music Library, and some now in store, can be borrowed. However, during the months of July and August, books located in the Summer School book shelves and marked for Summer School courses are not borrowable except by students registered for those courses. Any reader may borrow up to TWENTY books from the Library. If you wish to borrow more than this for a special reason, please ask one of the librarians first, and permission will usually be given. Books are divided into five borrowing categories:

1) Ordinary loan during term or vacation
2) Overnight loan only
3) Three day loan only
4) 1 week loan only
5) 2 week loan only

1) ORDINARY LOAN
Books may be borrowed at any time and kept until the next book-return date unless they are requested by another reader. It is also possible to borrow for vacations.

Book-return periods
There are 4 fixed book-return periods every year: at the beginning of Michaelmas Term for books borrowed over the summer vacation, and two days before the end of each Full Term. In 2018-19, the dates are:

- 28/11/2018 - for Michaelmas Term loans
- 13/03/2019 - for Lent Term loans
- 12/06/2019 - for Easter Term loans
During each book return period books on loan to you have to be either returned or renewed until the next book return. You will be sent e-mail instructions at the appropriate time which will explain what to do and how.

If a book is recalled from you please return it immediately. There is a fine of 50p per day for each recalled book not returned within 3 days of the notice sent to you. Books that are not recalled for another user can be renewed at book-return periods.

2) OVERNIGHT LOAN
These are marked “OVERNIGHT LOAN” and indicated in the catalogues. They can be borrowed until midnight of the following day. They can also be borrowed over weekends. Books returned late will be fined at the rate of 50p per day.

BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS

We wish to make the Library as useful to you as possible: the aim of the Library is to provide you with the books that you need for your studies. You are therefore very welcome to make recommendations for the purchase of books in your subject: indeed, it is Library policy to make acquisitions user-oriented and user-driven. You can recommend books that we do not hold and duplicate copies of books we already have, which have been taken out by somebody else. Book recommendation forms are kept at the Enquiry Desk. Completed forms should be returned to the College Librarian or Assistant Librarians, who will sometimes seek approval from Directors of Studies. The Library will obtain the books for you as quickly as possible; so don’t forget to fill in the ‘Date needed by’ slot. To recommend books via the online catalogue, click on the ‘Recommend to Purchase’ link on the purple toolbar, then fill in the form that appears. Please remember to include your user ID so we know who to contact when the book arrives.

Recommendations for books of reference or general interest may be discussed with the College Librarian.

INTERNET CONNECTION POINTS and WIFI

There is wi-fi throughout the Library. Data sockets for internet connection are to be found positioned underneath every desk in the Main Library. Please be considerate in using computers and try not to disturb other library users. The periodicals room (at the far end of the library) is a laptop-free zone.

NETWORKED COMPUTERS and E-JOURNALS

In the Balfour (Computer) Room there are fourteen networked computers, with two printers and two scanners. These provide a wide range of programmes, file stores, and—through the University Library web page—a vast network of databases, electronic journals and books, and gateways for academic work and research.

STUDY AIDS

Medical students can examine an articulated skeleton, or borrow skulls and a collection of bones. Please ask at the enquiry desk.
PHOTOCOPYING

The Library photocopier is located in the last room on the left, on the upper level of the first floor. Copyright laws are to be observed strictly in its use. In addition, the University holds a licence with the Copyright Licensing Agency, which authorises copying from its repertoire, and a USER GUIDE is posted on the wall in the photocopying room. Disposable photocopying cards (EMOS cards) can be purchased from the library Enquiry Desk.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

1. ARCHIVE CENTRE

The Archive Centre holds two distinct bodies of documents: the College’s internal administrative records (the College Archives) and the personal papers of former members and associated individuals (the Modern Archives). Catalogues and indexes to these collections are available for consultation in hard copy in the Archive Centre reading room and online (http://www.kings.cam.ac.uk/archive-centre/). Descriptions at collection level are also included in the Library’s online catalogue.

2. THE ROWE MUSIC LIBRARY

The Rowe Music Library, the most important college music library in Cambridge, is the gift of an anonymous benefactor who bought the collection of the noted bibliophile Louis Thompson Rowe in 1928. Strong in collected editions and reference works, it is particularly rich in English eighteenth-century printed music. Among the many rarities are sixteenth and seventeenth-century partbooks and manuscripts, a volume of songs engraved by Thomas Cross in a splendid contemporary morocco binding, and a unique group of early Russian printed editions. The collection was further strengthened in 1930 by the addition of around six hundred volumes from the library of the late Arthur Henry Mann, which were presented to the College by his family. Dr Mann had been organist and choirmaster of the College, and was particularly interested in hymn tunes and in the music of Handel. He built up a collection of early editions of both. A sizeable library of Walsh editions, to complement those in the foundation collection, was added in the late 1980s. Notable donations included a small group of sixteenth and seventeenth-century English manuscripts (including the Turpyn Lutebook) given by John Maynard Keynes, and a collection of books about Mozart presented by Alec Hyatt King. The Rowe Music Library is briefly described in The Music Review XII (1951), pp. 72-7. The books and music printed before 1801 are catalogued in the appropriate volumes of RISM and in BUCEM, and a number of the early manuscripts are described and illustrated in Iain Fenlon (ed.): Cambridge Music Manuscripts 900-1700 (Cambridge, Cambridge University Press, 1982).

3. FELLOWSHIP DISSERTATIONS

These are indexed and housed in the Archive Centre. They are only available on production of a letter signed by the Fellow concerned, allowing access to the dissertation. PhD dissertations are not available in College. They are housed in the Manuscript Room of the University Library. It is not necessary to produce authorisation to see a PhD dissertation, unless it has been placed on restricted access.

4. RARE BOOKS

With the exception of the collections listed above, the complete holdings of the College Library are listed in the hand-written and the online catalogue. Rare books are not on the open shelves. Many of these are marked in the hand-written catalogue by a red "S". If you wish to see any of them please ask the Library staff, but you will not be allowed to remove them from the Library or work on them when the staff are not present.

The Library holds a collection of children’s books, mainly from the 19th century, and a collection of English literature first editions, both bequeathed to King’s by the late Dr. George Rylands. In 2005 the College received a generous donation of books from Mr John Bury, mainly focussed on his interests in Renaissance architecture, fortification, and the Grand Tour of Italy and France. The College now has a world-class collection of books in these areas. The process of adding both of these collections to the online catalogue is now complete. Please consult the Library staff for further information.

5. KEYNES LIBRARY

This is J. M. Keynes's collection of rare books illustrating the history of European thought, bequeathed to King's in 1946. It is especially strong in editions of Hume, Newton and Locke, and in sixteenth and seventeenth century literature. About 1300 books in this collection have been catalogued on the online catalogue and can be searched electronically. There is also a complete card index to Keynes’s books above the Main Library Author Catalogue. Keynes’s collection of manuscripts by Newton, Bentham, John Stuart Mill, etc., is housed in the Archive Centre (see above); arrangements to consult the books should be made with the Librarian.

6. MEDIEVAL MANUSCRIPTS

The Library's interleaved and annotated copy of M. R. James's Descriptive Catalogue of the Manuscripts other than Oriental in the Library of King's College, Cambridge may be consulted on application to the Library Staff. The manuscripts are housed in the Archive Centre, and appointments to see them must be made through the Librarian.

7. ORIENTAL MANUSCRIPTS

E. H. Palmer's Catalogue of the Oriental Manuscripts in King’s College Library is in the Reference Bay: 8GN ALV JGT 5VD P Pot/2. The Oriental Manuscripts have been on permanent deposit in the University Library since 1970. Please apply to the Manuscript Room of the University Library to see them. It is not necessary to apply to King's.
8. AUDIO-VISUAL LIBRARY

The College subscribes to 3 simultaneous logins to the Naxos Music Library, which is a large online classical music streaming service with around 1,500,000 tracks of music from over 100,000 CDs. The service includes the complete catalogues or selected recordings of major record labels such as EMI Classics, RCA, Sony Classical, Virgin Classics and Warner Classics, along with independent labels such as BIS, Chandos, Hänssler, Hungaroton, Marco Polo, Naxos and Ondine. Students can ask to be put on the Library’s list of approved IP addresses so that they can connect to the service from their own rooms.
A small CD library belonging to KCSU is housed in the Main Library. There is also a modest collection of mainstream and foreign language films available for loan. Please see the terms and conditions below.

Videos/DVDS
1. Films may be borrowed on a short-term basis by registered Library users for their own individual private study and non-commercial research.
2. Films may be borrowed by registered Library users and shown to an audience of University staff and students. Such a showing must be for educational, instructional purposes only. No fee may be charged for the viewing.
3. Films may not be shown to the general public
4. No copies of a film may be made in any format or media. Digital rights management measures such as copy control mechanisms embedded in the media may not be removed for any purpose.

9. GLOBAL WARMING COLLECTION

A generous donation from Caroline Davidson, Clive Cookson and the Cookson Charitable Trust enabled the Library to create in 2007 a Global Warming Collection, which is located in the main part of the Library, near the front on the right-hand side, just beyond the Enquiry Desk. This rich and comprehensive collection covers a wide range of topics on the global warming theme, from The Kyoto Protocol to sceptical views on global warming. It seeks to inform and interest us in one of the most challenging issues affecting the world today. Books in this collection may be browsed or borrowed by all University members resident in Cambridge. Borrowing is on a two-week loan basis. Non-King’s members should please report to the Enquiry Desk on arrival, so that conditions of use can be explained and borrowing accounts can be created for them.

For more information on this collection, please consult the library staff, or visit our Global Warming webpage:

10. WELFARE COLLECTION

The Library houses a small collection of books on subjects such as self-help, travel, student life, gender, sexuality, accommodation and careers. These books are normal termly loans. They are shelved in the computer room. Please feel free to recommend other titles to add to the collection.
